5) Draft Bye-laws for regulating slaughter house.

5) The ^{draft} Bye-laws have been scrutinised in the light of the sanctioned Bye-laws of the Bowringpall Town Municipality. Some verbal alterations have been made in some of the provisions and a new Preamble has been substituted for the existing one.

6) Bye-laws 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, and ~~26~~ 26 contain directions which are required to be observed by the Veterinary Inspector and the Sanitary Inspector. Such directions are unnecessary for purpose of these Bye-laws as the Municipal Council has power to frame rules under section 46 (c) of the Town Municipalities Act, 1933, generally for the guidance of its officers and servants.

7) Bye-law No 4 provides penalty for an infringement of certain provisions. As this Bye-law is not comprehensive, it is suggested that a penal clause on the following lines may be substituted and incorporated at the end —

"Whoever ^{contravenes} ~~infringes~~ any of the provisions of the foregoing Bye-laws shall ^{be punished with} ~~be liable to a~~ fine ^{which may extend to} ~~not exceeding~~ Rs 20/- —

8) Bye-law No 8 does not appear to be ^{relevant} ~~relevant~~ for the purpose of slaughter house bye-laws and it can be incorporated in the Bye Laws relating to the sale of meat etc

9) Byelaws 9 to 27 excepting Bye-law 26, provide exclusively for matters relating to slaughterhouses In Bye-law 11, the second sentence which prescribes penalty for an infringement of this Bye-law, will be unnecessary if a general penal clause is added

10) The following arrangement of these Bye-laws is suggested from scrutiny —

1) Bye-laws 11 to 27, excepting Bye-law 26, to be numbered serially and the existing Bye-laws 9 and 10 to be incorporated after Bye-law No 11

2) Addition of a new Bye-law prescribing fixed ~~hours~~ hours for slaughtering animals, perhaps on the lines of Bye-law 5 of the Boromput Municipality

3) A general penal clause
as suggested previously

11) As the Bye laws relating to the sale of meat etc are entirely different from those relating to the slaughter of animals, it is submitted that a separate preamble appears necessary in respect of the former. A new preamble has accordingly been added

20/13/48

13/1

(12) The Nanjangud Town Municipality have framed two sets of bye-laws, one for regulation and inspection of the municipal slaughter house and the other second for regulating the sale of meat, fish etc, in markets and other places,

(13) The Administrative Section have put up the bye-laws on this subject in force in Davangere and Bowringpet

(14) The proposed bye-laws for regulation of slaughter houses appear to require some modifications. No proper order seems to have been observed in framing the bye-laws

(15) Bye-laws 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 7 and 26. r/primarily relate to directions to municipal officers & employees and hence cannot properly be incorporated in the bye-laws. Separate rules ^{may} ~~should~~ be framed under Rate Section 46 for the purpose of giving these directions.
The if approved these bye-laws may be omitted, and the Municipality informed of the reason for the omission.

(16) The bye-laws relating to slaughter houses may perhaps be arranged in the following order
A new bye-law may be inserted first as below

"1 Subject to the provisions of these bye-laws, ^{no} ~~any~~ animal shall be slaughtered ~~anywhere~~ within the municipal limits except in the ^{municipal} slaughter house or houses"

Bye-laws 12 to ~~16~~ except may be numbered as bye-laws 2 to 6, and after bye-law No 6 as so ~~renumbered~~, the following bye-laws may be inserted

"7 No person shall bring a ^{deceased} ~~deceased~~, dying or dead animal to a municipal slaughter house except under bye-law No 9

8 No animal which has not been permitted to be slaughtered by the Veterinary Inspector and which is not meant for immediate slaughter shall be brought into the slaughter house"

9 The Veterinary Inspector may direct the destruction or burial at such place as may be appointed by the President any carcass or organ of an animal or any part of carcass of an animal that he may find deceased ~~or~~ and unfit for human consumption. In these cases the decision of the Veterinary Inspector shall be final"

(17) Bye-laws Nos 17 to 25 and 27 may be numbered as bye-laws 10 to 18 Bye-law No 4 may be numbered as bye-law No 20 Bye-laws 9, 10 and 11 may be ~~renumbered~~ as 21, 22 and 23, and the Chief Officer may perhaps be given the powers ~~under~~ to grant permits instead of the Veterinary Inspector

A few verbal changes made in the draft are also for consideration

(18) ~~The~~ The bye-laws for regulation of the sale of meat, fish etc, appear to be suitable But ^{the draft} bye-law No 8 of the Slaughterhouse bye-laws may be inserted as bye-law No 1 of these bye-laws regulating the sale of meat, and bye-laws 1 to 5, renumbered

Sub: introduction of slaughter house bye-laws in the Nanjangud Municipality

In forwarding herewith the file of correspondence ending with the President's report No H C 137/47-48 dated nil received on 2-9-47 on the above subject, I have the honour to state that the question of introduction of the bye-laws relating to slaughter house was engaging the attention of the council since 1945 and as the records show that in the early part of January of that year, the draft of the bye-laws was promulgated and later in the middle of March 46 again notification was issued calling for objections and stating that copy of byelaws could be seen in the office if necessary wide publicity has been given to the fact both by circulation and beat of tom and it is reported that ~~xxxxxx~~ no objections have been received the Municipal Council at their meeting held on 29-4-46 have accepted the bye-laws so framed and notified copy of their resolution is enclosed

The need for introduction of this bye-law in such a big town as Nanjangud cannot be too strongly stressed I request in the circumstances that Government be pleased to accord sanction to the draft bye-laws passed by the Municipal Council early
